

Tailings 2019

6th International Seminar on Tailings Management

JULY 10~12

HOTEL SHERATON, SANTIAGO, CHILE

Technology and innovation for sustainable tailings management

PRELIMINARY PROGRAM

There are more than 100 abstracts received by authors from 13 countries among which are Australia, Germany, Canada, Brazil and Peru.

Simultaneous Spanish-English interpretation will be available in all sessions. Oral presentations can be made in any of these two languages.

The Program, with the list of abstracts received, can be found on our website gecam.in.com/tailings

SEMINAR THEMES

Geotechnics and dam safety • Hydraulics and transportation • Seepage and water management • Rheological and chemical aspects • Innovations in conventional tailings design and studies • Thickened and paste tailings • Filtered and centrifuged tailings design and studies • Technologies and instrumentation for monitoring and surveillance • Inclusion of stakeholders in tailings planning • Governance and operational experiences • Tailings closure management gecam.in.com/tailings

EARLY REGISTRATION

20 % off until
May 10

RECEIVED ABSTRACTS

More than 100 abstracts from 13 countries

EXECUTIVE COMMITTEE

CHAIR

Carlos Pavissich

Tailings Manager, Copper Projects,
BHP Minerals Americas

CO-ORGANIZERS

Ward Wilson

Professor, University of Alberta,
Canada

César Pastén

Academic, AMTC,
Universidad de Chile

Gonzalo Suazo

Geotechnical Professor,
Universidad Técnica Federico
Santa María, Chile

PROGRAM CHAIR

Hugo Quelopana

Tailings Management Specialist
Engineer, Delfing, Chile

COORDINATOR

Oliver Allendes

Gecamin, Chile

ENQUIRIES

(56 2) 2652 1532

(56 2) 2652 1549

tailings@gecam.in.com

ORGANIZERS

GECAMIN

INSTITUTIONAL PARTNERS

