

SRMINING 2015

3rd International Conference on Social Responsibility in Mining

November 4~6

Enjoy Hotel,
Antofagasta, Chile

gecamin.com/srmining

Mining of the future: innovating, including, influencing

TECHNICAL PROGRAM

There are over 50 presentations by authors from 17 countries among which are Australia, Canada, Chile, Mexico, Peru, South Africa, United Kingdom and USA.

Simultaneous Spanish-English interpretation will be available in all sessions. Oral presentations can be delivered in any of these two languages.

The preliminary program can be found on our website.

CONFERENCE THEMES

SR standards, corporate governance and management systems • Human rights, fair labor and gender • Displacement, resettlement and livelihood restoration • Social investment, community development, social enterprise and collective impact • Indigenous peoples, indigenous rights and mining • Conflict prevention and resolution • Measuring, monitoring and reporting social performance.

SHORT COURSES

Date: November 4

- Mining based on a Shared Vision of Development and Social Progress

Instructor: Cristian Parra, Analysis for Development Group, Australia

Note: Course registration fees are independent from the Conference.

Technical Program

Over 50 presentations from 17 countries

Executive Committee

CHAIR

Francisco J. Veloso B.

Corporate Affairs and Sustainability Vice President,
Antofagasta Minerals

CO-CHAIR

Deanna Kemp

Deputy Director,
Centre for Social Responsibility in Mining, SMI, The University of Queensland, Australia

TECHNICAL COORDINATOR

Cristian Parra

Director and Co-Founder,
Analysis for Development
Group, Australia

CONFERENCE MANAGER

Barbara Alcayaga

Planning and Development
Manager, Gecamin, Chile

Inquiries

COORDINATOR

Gabrielle Cousin

+56 2 2652 1584

srmining@gecamin.com

Organized by

SMI CSR

Centre for Social Responsibility in Mining

GECAMIN

Conferences for Mining

Institutional Partners

